HAPPY BIRTHDAY GEORGE WASHINGTON

Annual Meeting of the DAR, SAR and the C.A.R.

Sponsored by Fort Dearborn Chapter and Skokie Valley Chapter

for the

William Dawes Society C.A.R.

with a warm welcome to C.A.R. from Major Watson, Aaron Miner and Illinois Prairie Societies

*George Washington was born 22 February 1732 and died 14 Dec 1799.
He served as commander-in-chief of the Continental Army. He was the first president of the United States. He was elected unanimously in 1788 and served for two terms. Very importantly, George Washington presided over the convention that drafted the United States Constitution replacing the Articles of Confederation. This precious document remains the supreme law of the land.*
